CERAMIC TABLE

DESIGN BY MULLER VAN SEVEREN, 2024

Designed by Muller Van Severen, the Ceramic Table is an outdoor table defined by its minimalistic expression combined with bold use of colour. Comprising a round tabletop in porcelain atop a steel tube column and concrete base, the classic table archetype is drawn together by a strong sense of proportions and solid presence of colour in the material. The table's simplicity, durability, and versatility give it a universal appeal that makes it easy to pair with a wide range of HAY chairs in a variety of outdoor spaces.
